HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 21
BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE
A HOUSE RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND PLEDGING TO CONTINUE TO BE ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN DISCUSSIONS WITH THE GREATER IDAHO MOVEMENT TO DETERMINE THE BEST POSSIBLE COURSE FOR IDAHO.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, many members of the House of Representatives have been actively engaged with members of Citizens for a Greater Idaho to move Idaho's borders to include portions of Oregon; and

WHEREAS, the people of Oregon are eager to continue talks with Idahoans and Idaho legislators about the possibility of moving the borders; and

WHEREAS, Oregon has many resources that would be highly beneficial to Idaho and Idahoans, some of which include a large open and rugged land mass, water resources, timber, and minerals; and

WHEREAS, Idaho would have the ability to approve tax-based projects at the deep-water port at Coos Bay, thus no longer needing to rely upon the Portland port and making it much easier to get products to market with the new option at Coos Bay; and

WHEREAS, access to Coos Bay provides a backup to potential dam breaches on the Snake River; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Oregon counties that would join with Idaho would be a huge boost to Idaho's tax base once they were free and clear of the regulatory constraints of Oregon.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives, assembled in the Second Regular Session of the Sixty-sixth Idaho Legislature, that the House of Representatives will continue to be actively engaged in discussions with the Greater Idaho movement as we determine the best possible course for Idaho.

HR 21 was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

SCR 124, by State Affairs Committee, was introduced, read the first time by title, and filed for second reading.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNORBoise

March 24, 2022

The Honorable Scott Bedke
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I have signed on March 24, 2022 and am transmitting to the Secretary of State the following House bill, to wit:

H 714

I have consistently said that our state tax policies should be fair, simple, competitive, and predictable. I am concerned that House Bill 714 may not meet this standard, particularly because of the bill's retroactive, unpredictable effect. The fiscal note assumes the impact to be less than $400,000, but the actual fiscal impact is completely unknown. I have asked the Idaho State Tax Commission to provide me, to the best of their ability, with the actual impacts of this legislation following its implementation. I will share this information with the relevant committees in the House and Senate.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brad Little
Governor

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 22 BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE A HOUSE RESOLUTION

STATING FINDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND PROVIDING FOR THE AMENDMENT OF RULE 45 OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Idaho:

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives deems it necessary and desirable that Rule 45 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the House of Representatives, assembled in the Second Regular Session of the Sixty-sixth Idaho Legislature, that Rule 45 of the Rules of the House of Representatives shall be amended to read as follows:

RULE 45

Committee on Ethics and House Policy. – (1)(a) ~~In~~ Within twelve days of the convening of the first regular session of each Legislature, an Ethics and House Policy Committee shall be organized and its membership shall be determined. The Ethics and House Policy Committee shall consist of five members of the House, three of whom shall be selected by members of the majority party and two of whom shall be selected by members of the minority party. Committee members must have served at least one full term in the Legislature and may have served previously on the committee. House members holding who have been sanctioned by the House for an ethics violation pursuant to this rule or who hold leadership positions shall not serve on the Ethics and House Policy Committee. Committee Chairmen may serve on the Ethics and House Policy Committee. Committee members shall not have been previously sanctioned by the House for an ethics violation pursuant to this rule.

~~The majority party and minority party may select only members who have previously served at least one full term.~~

(b) ~~Each party shall also select two a first and second committee alternates for their its respective party, ranked according to the number of votes each alternate received. In the event of a tie, the ranking shall be determined by a coin toss. The committee alternates shall sit and have voting rights when the committee is sitting to review House policy. When the committee is sitting to consider an ethics matter, the committee alternates shall serve only in the event of a vacancy, for the duration of the vacancy, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.~~

(c) ~~Committee members may be selected to serve on a subsequent committee. A vacancy on the committee shall be filled with an alternate available and selected by the leadership of the party entitled to fill the vacancy by the first, followed by the second, alternate for the respective party for the duration of the vacancy. When no alternates are available to fill a vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by majority vote of the House members of the party entitled to fill the vacancy. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this rule, a A member filling a permanent vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term. If a complaint concerns misconduct of a member of the Ethics and House Policy Committee, that member shall not serve on the committee for any purpose relating to such complaint.~~

(d) ~~The Speaker of the House shall appoint committee shall elect one of the majority party members of the committee as chairman of the committee by a four-fifths majority vote. Alternates shall not be entitled to vote for chairman or to serve as chairman unless filling a vacancy.~~

(2)(a) The chairman of the Ethics and House Policy Committee shall receive complaints from any member of the House and shall be solely responsible for the security and retention of all committee records relating to a complaint, which shall be maintained in a locked box in the office of the chief clerk for the duration of the respondent's service in the Idaho Legislature, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the complaint.

(b) ~~The A~~ complaint shall be in writing, signed and contain one or more of the following allegations that may constitute:

- (i) Conduct unbecoming a Representative which is detrimental to the integrity of the House as a legislative body;

(ii) Disclosure of information that is confidential as provided in House rules;

(iii) Conduct constituting a felony under any state law, or which violates any state law relating to the use of public office for private pecuniary gain;

(iv) A violation of any state law or House rule relating to conflicts of interest involving legislative duties; or

(v) A violation of any state law or House rule that brings discredit to the House of Representatives or that constitutes a breach of public trust.

(c) The complaint shall be specific and provide:

(i) The name of the member of the House of Representatives alleged to be in violation (the "respondent");

(ii) Identification of any third parties involved;

(iii) Reference to the House rule and/or applicable state law supporting the alleged violation;

(iiiv) A description of the facts and circumstances supporting each alleged violation; and

(iv) The evidence the complainant has at the time of making the complaint supporting the facts and violation alleged in the complaint.

(3) The committee may, in its discretion and upon an affirmative vote by four-fifths of the committee, resolve and dismiss a complaint at any time. It shall maintain a confidential record of the committee review and dismissal of the complaint, as provided in subsection (2)(a) of this rule. The dismissal may be in the form of a letter to the respondent and the complainant, in that order.

(d4) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the committee shall conduct a preliminary investigation of the complaint, beginning with an initial review the written complaint, as follows:

(a) The committee shall conduct an initial review of the written complaint and, by a four-fifths vote, shall dismiss any ethics complaint that:

(i) Lacks sufficient evidence of conduct described by subsection (2)(b) of this rule;

(ii) Does not comply with subsection (2)(c) of this rule; or

(iii) Alleges violations that occurred either before the accused member was first elected to the House of Representatives or for which an applicable statute of limitation has run.

(e) ~~Written complaints shall remain confidential until such time as the Ethics and House Policy Committee finds probable cause that such member has committed misconduct as provided in this rule.~~

(3b) The If a complaint is not dismissed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection following the initial review, the committee shall notify the person against whom the complaint was brought respondent and shall provide such person the respondent with a copy of the complaint and all evidence submitted supporting the complaint.

(c) During the initial review and preliminary investigation phase of the process, all proceedings shall be held in executive session and all information regarding the complaint shall remain confidential.

(d) The person complained against respondent may submit a written answer to the committee. The member complained against shall provide such written answer to the chairman of the committee no later than fourteen days following the date that the copy of the complaint was provided to the member complained against respondent.

(e) Following receipt of the answer from the respondent, or if no answer to the complaint is provided to the chairman within the time period provided fourteen days, the committee shall meet and ~~conduct a~~ continue the preliminary investigation of the complaint.

(f) ~~Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 26, such meeting shall be held in executive session. At the preliminary investigation, following consideration of the evidence presented, if a complaint is not resolved and dismissed pursuant to this rule, the committee shall may determine, based upon the complaint, other relevant information and the answer to the complaint, whether by a four-fifths vote, that the evidence substantiates the alleged facts such that probable cause exists that the member committed misconduct as provided in this rule may have occurred. If, at the conclusion of the preliminary investigation, the committee determines no probable cause exists that misconduct has occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed and the written complaint shall remain confidential. If, at the conclusion of the preliminary investigation, the committee determines probable cause exists that misconduct may have occurred, At such time, the committee shall so notify the person complained against and respondent, followed by the complainant, that the committee will proceed to a public hearing. The committee shall, within seventy-two hours following such notification, redact the names and other personal identifying information of third parties, when deemed appropriate, from copies of the complaint and response, including any evidence attached to each, redacted as necessary, and such renditions of the written complaint against the member and response shall no longer be confidential but shall become a public documents. After such time, the chairman shall notify the body that a public hearing shall be held. The complainant and the respondent are entitled to unredacted copies of the complaint and response and all of the evidence in support of each, which must be held confidential by the complainant and respondent and their representatives.~~

(45)(a) Following a finding of probable cause and in a timely fashion, the committee shall conduct a public hearing before which the ~~member~~ respondent shall be entitled to appear, present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and be represented by counsel. The complainant or authorized agent of the complainant shall first present the complaint and supporting evidence and testimony to the committee. The committee shall have the power to take testimony under oath and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum in the manner provided in Section 67-407, Idaho Code, and make inquiry and discover evidence relevant to the allegation. Formal rules of evidence are not applicable; however, evidence shall be weighed according to its reliability, and the ~~accused~~ respondent may raise objection to any evidence. The ~~accused~~ respondent may defer presentation of any defense until all of the evidence has been presented in support of the complaint. ~~The accused shall have a full and fair opportunity to obtain and review all of the evidence in support of the complaint.~~

(b) The committee may take appropriate measures to protect the identity and privacy of third party witnesses who testify at the public hearing.

(c) If evidence previously unknown to the respondent is presented during the public hearing, the committee chairman may, at the request of the respondent, recess the hearing while the respondent prepares a response.

(d) During the public hearing, the committee may deliberate in executive session.

(e) The committee may consult with and be assisted by the attorney general's office or another attorney or other experts of their choosing.

(f) The respondent shall have access to an attorney or other representative for advice and consultation. The committee may also vote to provide the respondent with financial assistance to employ an attorney to represent the respondent in any proceeding under this rule.

(56) If, after investigation and hearings held pursuant to this rule, the committee finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent's conduct alleged in the complaint did in fact occur and that such conduct constitutes a violation of one or more of the standards contained in subsection (2)(b) of this rule occurred, the committee shall make appropriate recommendations to the House of Representatives. By four-fifths vote of the committee, the committee shall may recommend dismissal of the charges, complaint, or reprimand, censure, or expulsion, provided that a recommendation for expulsion shall only be based upon a finding beyond reasonable doubt that misconduct involves commission of a felony or use of public office for pecuniary gain under subsection (2)(b)(iii) of this rule of the respondent. A reprimand shall carry no sanctions other than the reading of the reprimand into the Journal of the House of Representatives. The sanction of censure of a member may be with or without include conditions or restrictions placed upon the member, but may not have the effect of expulsion, such as terminating salary or benefits or denying a legislative district representation via floor votes. The committee recommendation must be approved by a four-fifths vote of the committee, except in the case of a recommendation for expulsion, which must be approved by a unanimous vote of the committee.

(7) The committee shall prepare a report setting forth its findings, listing the complaint that was filed, the committee findings in relation to the facts and evidence relevant to that complaint, the committee's recommendation and the reasons for such recommendation. If the committee does not issue a recommendation within thirty days of the conclusion of the public hearing, the complaint shall be deemed dismissed.

(8) The House of Representatives shall vote on the recommendation of the committee, as set forth in the report, during the regular session of the Legislature in which the committee reports. If the committee meets and reports during the interim when the Legislature is not in session, then the House of Representatives shall vote on the committee recommendation during the next regular session of the Legislature. ~~If the committee does not issue a recommendation within thirty days of the conclusion of the public hearing, the complaint shall be deemed dismissed.~~ Expulsion of a House member shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to of the House, as provided by Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution. Reprimand or censure of a member shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to of the House. Action of the House pursuant to this rule is final and not subject to court review.

(69) ~~The committee may retain such counsel and may hire such investigators as it deems necessary for the performance of its duties under this rule.~~ All expenditures incurred pursuant to this subsection (5) of this rule shall be approved by the Chairman and paid by vouchers and warrants drawn as provided by law from appropriations made to the Legislative Account.

(710) The committee may adopt rules of procedure for the orderly conduct of committee meetings, investigations and hearings, which rules shall be consistent with this rule and other applicable rules and statutes.

(8) If the written signed complaint concerns misconduct of a member of the Ethics and House Policy Committee, or is filed by a member of the Ethics and House Policy Committee, or both, then that member or members shall be disqualified and shall not serve on the committee for any purpose relating to such

~~complaint. A vacancy on the committee created as a result of this subsection shall be filled by an alternate in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1)(c) of this rule, except that the fulfillment of any such vacancy shall only be for purposes relating to such complaint.~~
